

Everything About The Gaseous State Of Matter

Read the text below to understand the gaseous state of matter.

A GAS is a shapeless, air-like substance or matter that moves around freely. Examples of the gaseous state of matter are air, natural gas, water vapor, and oxygen.

Circle the images that represent the gaseous state of matter.

Milk

Tea

Water vapor

Cold drinks

Bed

Oxygen

Snow

Cat

Table

Perfume