

The Negative And Interrogative Forms Of The Present Tense

Rewrite each of the sentences into their negative and interrogative forms. The first one has been done as an example.

1 He likes dancing.

Negative:

He does not like dancing

Interrogative:

Does he like dancing?

2 They like pancakes and strawberries.

Negative:

Interrogative:

3 He drives a Tesla.

Negative:

Interrogative:

4 She plays tennis.

Negative:

Interrogative:

5 We live in Mexico.

Negative:

Interrogative:

6 Juarez and Lola speak Spanish.

Negative:

Interrogative:

7 The cats are in the living room.

Negative:

Interrogative:

8 Jennifer and Jane are here.

Negative:

Interrogative:

9 This is my car.

Negative:

Interrogative:

10 It is my dress.

Negative:

Interrogative:

11 The dog plays with the ball.

Negative:

Interrogative:

12 They are in Miami.

Negative:

Interrogative:

13 Mary and I are cousins.

Negative:

Interrogative:
