

Solve These Two-Digit Subtraction Word Problems

Read the questions carefully and write the correct answer in the space provided.

The first one is solved for your understanding.

- 1 Jack had 48 tomatoes and 23 carrots. He made tomato sauce using 35 tomatoes. How many tomatoes is he left with?

Jack has 13 tomatoes left with him.

- 2 My father bought 24 eggs. 10 eggs fell down and 2 were rotten. How many eggs are left?

- 3 Jamie had sewed 18 sweaters for the winter carnival sale. She could sell only 10 of them. How many sweaters remain with Jamie?

- 4 Jack, the farmer, had 56kg onions. He sold 35kg. He gave 8kg to his friend Maria. How many kilograms of onions is Jack left with?

- 5 Michelle had 29 sheep and 57 goats. She sold 19 sheep and 33 goats. How many sheep and goats are still with her?

0
4
5
1
6

6 75 students are going on a museum tour. 23 students went in the first bus, and 31 students went in the second bus. How many students went in the third bus?

.....

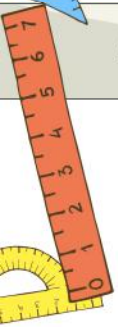

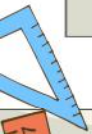

7 There are 80 horses at the stable. 23 went to the race and 15 to the veterinary doctor. How many horses are still in the stable?

.....

8 John had 50 Christmas trees. He could sell only 15. How many Christmas trees are left with him?

.....

0
4
5
1
6

Space for Calculations