

The Birthday Party

Read the questions carefully and complete the sentences. Select the answers from the box given below.

Martha organized a surprise birthday party for her mother. She and her siblings with their father prepared the invitations and ordered a cake. Martha's brother Ben made the arrangements for the snacks, and her sister decorated their backyard with balloons. In the evening, all the guests arrived at their house. They hid in the backyard while Martha's mother was on her way home. As the mother reached home, Martha opened the door and greeted her mother. She held her mother's hand and took her to the backyard. Once they reached the backyard, everyone started singing the birthday song. Martha's mother was surprised and smiled through her cheeks. She hugged Martha and thanked everyone for making her day so special.
