

Replace The Underlined Noun

A Personal pronoun is a word that is used instead of a noun to refer to a specific person or object.

Some examples of personal pronouns are I, You, We, He, She, They, Them, and Us.

Let's consider this pair of sentences:

Sarah is a beautiful girl. She likes watching Disney movies.

Here, Sarah is the noun, whereas She is the pronoun. The pronoun She is used to avoid repeating the noun over and over again.

Circle the pronoun that can replace the underlined word.

- Joseph drives the car.
a. Us b. He c. She d. It
- The pigeons are flying.
a. They b. He c. It d. She
- Mom and dad went for shopping.
a. Us b. They c. It d. we
- David, Grace, and Andy went for a football game.
a. Them b. All c. They d. we
- Cats were hiding under the table.
a. Them b. You c. We d. They
- My sister loves baking.
a. She b. Her c. It d. We

7. Allan has gone to the park.
a. They b. We c. It d. He
8. Albert forgot to register for the classes.
a. He b. It c. We d. They
9. The teacher praised Allan and Albert.
a. We b. Them c. You d. It
10. David spilled milk on the floor.
a. He b. They c. It d. You
11. The girls are singing a carol.
a. They b. She c. We d. Us
12. The babies like to listen to rhymes.
a. We b. Us c. They d. These 13. Ms. Mathew's is our family friend.
a. You b. They c. We d. She
14. Mark bought a new bag.
a. It b. She c. He d. Her
15. The ladies were dancing.
a. She b. Their c. They d. We