Read the story and complete the story map.

Jason and his mother went out for dinner. While walking towards the restaurant, Jason saw a watch lying on the road. He picked it up and kept it in his pocket. After dinner, while coming out of the restaurant, Jason saw a boy rushing toward him. The boy asked Jason if he had seen a watch lying on the floor. Jason lied to the boy and said that he had not seen anything. The next day, as Jason was about to leave for school, a policeman arrived. He asked Jason about the watch. Out of fear, Jason started crying and handed over the watch to the policeman. After the policeman left, Jason stood at the door crying. Jason's mother hugged him and explained to him that all these would not have happened if he had returned the watch last evening. Jason realized his mistake and apologized to his mother. He promised her that he would never lie in the future.
