Jane went shopping with her mother. While returning, she saw an old lady crossing the street. The lady looked confused and was struggling to cross the street even after repeated trials. Jane asked her mother if she could help the old lady. Her mother said, "Yes." Jane went to the other side of the street and helped the lady cross the street. The old lady thanked Jane for her kind gesture. As Jane returned, her mother praised her. She asked Jane to always be helpful to people in need. Jane smiled and promised her mother that she will always be helpful to others.
