

Ride the power wheels at a safe speed to avoid injuries.

Adjust the power wheel based on the height and weight of the child.

Don't let your child ride a power wheel on a busy street.

Ensure the power wheel is used on a flat surface to keep it from toppling.

Make your children wear safety equipment before riding a power wheel.

Inspect the power wheels regularly for damages that may cause accidents.

Keep pets and young children at a distance when using a power wheel.

Clean the power wheel regularly to keep it free of germs.

Source: https://www.momjunction.com/articles/best-power-wheels-for-kids_00775462/