

HOW TO APPLY

Rosehip Oil

TO YOUR FACE

Wash your face with a gentle, natural cleanser.

Squeeze out three drops of rosehip oil on your palm using a dropper.

Rub your palms together and allow the oil to warm up with the heat.

Gently massage the oil on your face in a circular motion. Make sure to cover all the parts.

Apply the remaining oil to your hands.

Finish off by applying your eye cream.

TIPS TO REMEMBER

You may use rosehip oil undiluted or dilute it with a carrier oil.

Rosehip oil is required in a small quantity.

The oil is soaked up by the skin in no time and does not give you a greasy feeling.
