

Words To Celebrate The Mother-Son Bond

“Son, you will outgrow my lap, but never my heart.”

“Sometimes when I need a miracle, I look into my son’s eyes, and realize I’ve already created one.”

“A man who treats his woman like a princess is proof that he has been born and raised in the arms of a queen.”

“There was not ever and never will be a love as special as between a mother and a son.”

“A mother is her son’s first love, first friend, and first kiss. She is his momma and he is her whole world. He is her little boy.”

“No matter how big and strong he gets and no matter how old he is, for his mother, he is always her baby.”
