

Trivia About Human Eyes

Your eyes consist of approximately two million moving parts that aid in vision.

The human eye possesses the ability to perceive more than 10 million colors.

Trying to keep your eyes open while sneezing is an impossibility.

The resolution of the human eye would equate to 576 megapixels.

Reading speed on screens is typically 25% slower than reading on paper.

The lifespan of an eyelash is typically about five months.