

Remembering Brother On His

Death Anniversary

"We were inseparable until the day he left for heavenly abode."

"I can't believe you are not with me anymore. You left me alone."

"You taught me to be a strong girl. But today, it's killing me from inside to realize that you are no more."

"The bond of a brother and sister is magical. There is love, care, understanding, fighting, and arguments. Now, I'm left alone in this world."

"There is an angel up above who is always watching over me, and that's my brother."

"Death may take you away from me, but not your memories."
