

Watery Eyes Vs. Bacterial Eye Infection

Watery eyes do not improve on antibiotic drops.

Yellow or green eye discharge indicates bacterial infections.

The eyelids appear puffy in bacterial infections.

Crusting of eyelashes is seen in infection

Bacterial infections improve with prescription eye drops.

Reference:

Common Eye Infections;
Association of Optometrists