

Interesting

Facts About

Elephants

Elephants are the only mammals that cannot jump, trot, or gallop. But they know how to swim.

Elephants use sand as sunscreen to protect themselves from getting sunburned.

Baby elephants are born blind.

After humans, elephants are the only animals to have chins.

Elephants can identify themselves in a mirror.

A mother elephant often appoints multiple babysitters to look after her little one so she can eat enough to feed her child.

Elephants are afraid of bees.

