

INDIAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

FACTS TO INSTILL THE FEELING OF PATRIOTISM IN CHILDREN

1857

The Revolt of 1857 was the first significant uprising against British rule.

The Cellular jail at Andaman and Nicobar Islands was constructed to exile the arrested participants of India's freedom struggle.

'Inquilab Zindabad,' which means long live the revolution, was raised by Batukeshwar Dutt, an associate of Bhagat Singh.

The partition of India and Pakistan was announced in June 1947.

India was declared an independent democratic nation at 12:02 am, 15th August 1947.

The National Anthem, Jana Gana Mana, was officially adopted on 24th January 1950 by the Constituent Assembly of India.

