

FLORIDA

Facts To Fascinate Children

The adventurous Spanish conquistador Ponce de Leon gave the state its name.

Florida has the second longest coastline among US states.

Britton Hill is the highest point in Florida.

Myakka, a type of fine sand soil, is found exclusively in Florida.

Florida is the natural home for American Alligators, earning the name 'Alligator State.'

The state's constitution undergoes a review for amendments every 20 years.

