

Fascinating Walt Disney Facts For Your Children

Walt Disney delivered newspapers as a teenager for more than six years.

He co-founded "Disney Brothers Studio" with his brother Roy. It was later renamed "The Walt Disney Company."

The company released the first full-length animated film, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" in 1937.

Cartoonist Ubbe Iwerks collaborated with Walt Disney to create the famous character "Mickey Mouse."

He founded the Disneyland theme park in 1955.

Between 1932 and 1969, Walt Disney won multiple Oscars in the 'best animated short' category.