

Facts About Sea Turtles

Your Children Will Love

Male sea turtles spend their entire lives underwater.

Sea turtles have eye glands that enable them to get rid of excess salt in their eyes.

Their eggs are round in shape.

They enjoy traveling around and can track over 10,000 miles every year.

Female sea turtles lay about 150 eggs at a time

Sea turtles have stronger muscles than humans.

The leatherback sea turtles can reach as deep as 1000 feet in the ocean.

The largest sea turtle ever discovered weighed around 2,020 pounds with a length of 9.8 feet.