

Make sure that you are 'present' at the moment and not distracted

Make use of a variety of sounds and words while talking to them

Give them a chance to respond

Talk to them about a variety of things and objects

You may also sing and tell them stories

Bring about modulation in your voice

The use of gestures or signs while talking will keep them engaged

Keep the tone of your voice cheerful

Source: https://www.momjunction.com/articles/social-and-emotional-development-activities-for-babies_00344795/