

EFFECTIVE WAYS VIRGO AND PISCES CAN SOLVE THEIR PROBLEMS

Pisces will honor Virgo's concerns if they learn to tame their critical side and approach things in a sensitive manner.

Virgo would be happier if Pisces tried to understand that Virgo only wants to help and make their lives better.

Pisces must learn to be more considerate of their partner's time, whereas Virgo can learn to control their critical nature.

Both signs must aim at patiently waiting for each other to catch up and not be rigid.
