

Tips For Selecting A Hair Oil For Your Baby

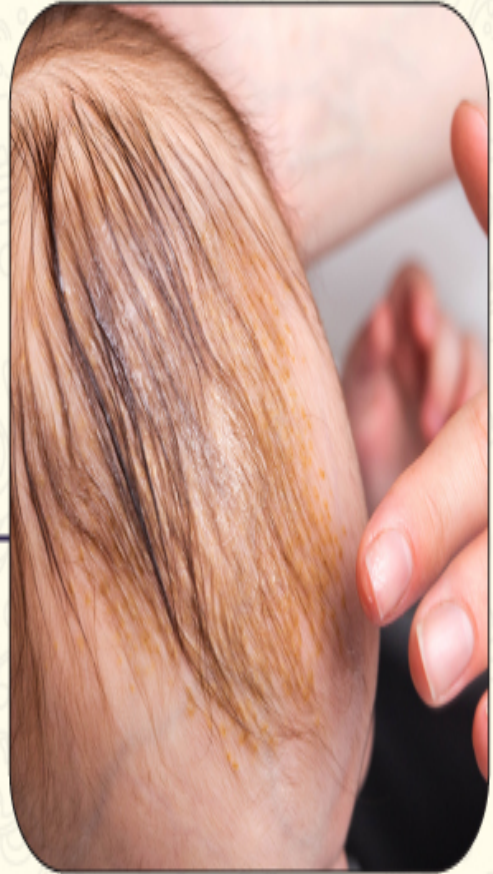

Check the ingredient label to avoid products with harsh chemicals.

Look for any ingredients that are potential or known allergens.

Opt for oils free of parabens, sulfates, phthalates, and mineral oils.

Avoid oils with excess fragrance and artificial color.

Choose concentrated products that let you dilute it as per your requirements.

Opt for specific condition-related hair oils if your baby has a dry scalp or other hair or scalp-related issues. Consult the doctor before use.
