

Tips To Follow

To Keep A Sandwich Maker Clean

Go through the cleaning instructions provided by the manufacturer.

Use oven-safe parchment or baking paper whenever possible to curtail the mess.

Wipe-clean the maker after every use to reduce food residue buildup.

Always switch off, unplug, and let the maker cool down before cleaning it.

Dampen a cloth with water and mild soap and wipe clean the maker.

Wipe the grill area with a clean cloth to remove any soap residue.

Keep the maker open to let it air-dry thoroughly before storing it.
