

Tips For Cleaning Backpack Sprayers

Wear chemical-resistant gloves, eye protection, and overalls before opening the sprayer.

Discard any leftover solution in the tank properly.

Rinse the tank thoroughly and fill it with water and dishwashing liquid.

Shake the tank for the removal of any residual chemicals and stains.

Clean and unclog the sprayer by spraying soapy water through it.

Give the tank a final rinse with water and let it air dry before storing or using it again.