

Useful Tips For Teens

To Involve Themselves In Debates

Listen to other people and wait for your turn to speak.

Read and research well about the topic.

Make social eye contact while speaking.

Frame a proper introduction and conclusion.

Have solid and relevant points to support your opinion.

Present your views in a confident tone.

Ensure not to deviate from the topic.

Stay humble, and do not make things personal.

