

Signs A Taurus Man Is In Love With You

He acts shy, and at times your conversations may seem awkward.

He's not interested in anyone else and only compliments you.

He is protective of you and likes it when you reach out to him for help.

He likes gifting you expensive things to make you happy and see the smile on your face.

He makes advances to get intimate with you.

He introduces you to his close friends and family members.