

Ways To Give A Goodnight Poem

To Your Girlfriend

Write the poem and leave the paper on her bedside table with a rose.

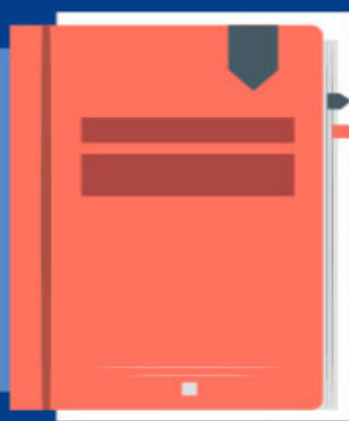

Have the poem engraved on a coffee mug and surprise her as you bring a cup of hot chocolate in the same mug.

If you are away from her, narrate the poem and send an audio recording before she goes to sleep.

Have someone deliver her favorite meal for dinner with the poem on the side if you are in a long-distance relationship.

Keep the paper containing the poem on the pillow, leave the room to take your night shower, and be prepared for the coziest and tightest hug when you come out.

If you are working late, hide the poem in the book she reads every night and let her feel your love even when you aren't around.
