

Tips For Picking The Right-Sized LIFE JACKET

Stick to the measuring chart and procedure provided by the jacket's brand.

Check the manufacturer's weight-based sizing rules when selecting a child's jacket.

Measure the fullest part of the torso to determine the size of an adult's jacket.

Choose a snug-fitting neoprene jacket, as it features a stretchable design.

Pick a size that ensures the front panels come close together when selecting a non-stretchable jacket.

Select a well-fitting jacket that doesn't rise to your chin when lifted from the shoulders.
