

How To Respond When A Married Woman Likes You?

Try avoiding eye contact or attempts of touch.

Avoid keeping requests to meet alone for snacks or meals. Accompany only if there's a group.

Do not engage in conversations more than necessary.

Do not reply to her texts immediately, or apologize for a late reply, if it is not an official conversation.

Deliberately miss private parties that she invites you to.

Talk casually about other girls while conversing with her. This will let her know that you don't see her more than a friend or colleague.
