

Opt for puzzles with a manageable number of pieces the child can handle.

Discuss the picture on the puzzle with the child before starting.

Choose a flat and even surface for the puzzle.

Take out all the puzzle pieces on the work surface and ensure they are placed 'face up.'

Segregate pieces according to the colors or parts of the image that might go together.

Separate and gather the corner and edge pieces in one place.

Reference:

Learning with puzzles; Early Childhood Education and Care, Queensland Government

Source: https://www.momjunction.com/articles/best-puzzles-for-10-year-olds_00781141/