

Storage Ideas For Board Games

Sort the board game boxes by color and arrange them on shelves.

Store the board games in slender plastic boxes if their original boxes have worn out.

Stash the games in mesh pouches for space-efficient storage.

Place the board game boxes in metal or wicker baskets and slide them under the bed.

Utilize a dedicated cabinet if you have a large number of board games.

Store the games in a toy chest in the child's room for easy access.

Stack the games in an ottoman with a storage bin to enjoy dual benefits.

Keep them organized in rolling crates to facilitate easy maneuverability from room to room.
