

INTERESTING INFORMATION ABOUT

JAPAN

The first ruler of Japan, Emperor Jimmu, ascended the throne on 11th February 660 BC. This day is celebrated in Japan as National Foundation Day.

Japan is an archipelago made of more than 6,000 islands.

Mount Fuji is the highest mountain in Japan (3,776.24 meters).

Japanese use three unique ways of bowing to greet a person. They are named Eshaku, Keirei, and Saikeirei.

Sumo wrestling is a 1,500-year-old sport in Japan.

Haiku is the shortest form of poetry practiced in Japan. It contains only three lines.

Ramen noodles originated in Japan.

The Japanese were the first to introduce a bullet train in the year 1964.

