

Astounding Information ABOUT FISH

There are more than 35,000 species of fish in the world.

Fish are among the oldest survivors on the planet Earth.

An electric eel can generate about 350-650 volts of electricity.

A seahorse is the slowest swimming fish.

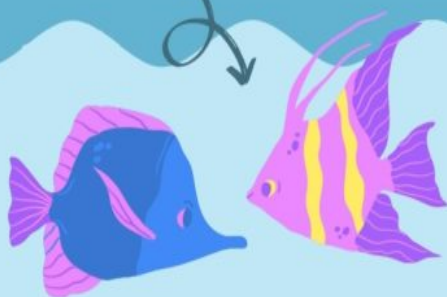

Pufferfish have tetrodotoxin toxin, which is more poisonous than cyanide.

A catfish has more than 100,000 taste buds.

Fishes lack vocal cords, and they make sounds with their body parts.

The West African lungfish may survive on land without water.

