

WATCHING THE LIONS UP CLOSE IN THEIR NATURAL HABITAT

BOTSWANA

The Okavango Delta of Northern Botswana is home to the largest lion population in the world and is a famous safari destination

TANZANIA

Known as the ideal big cat country, its Serengeti National Park alone boasts a population of about 3000 lions.

KENYA

The country has many parks for lions, the most popular being the Maasai Mara National Reserve, home to Africa's largest lion population.

ZIMBABWE

It hosts Africa's largest reserve — Hwange National Park, famous amongst tourists for its incredible view of a lion kill.

INDIA

The Gir National Park & Wildlife Sanctuary of India is home to the last 523 Asiatic lions of the world.

REFERENCES :

1. Our top African Destinations To See Lions; Encounter Africa
2. Serengeti National Park Lions; Ngorongoro Crater
3. Gir National Park & Wildlife Sanctuary; Gujarat Government