

HOW TO MAKE YOUR EX MISS YOU OVER A TEXT

I know I still love you because you cross my mind every second of the day.

I deleted your messages and blocked you everywhere, but I do not know how to delete you from my heart.

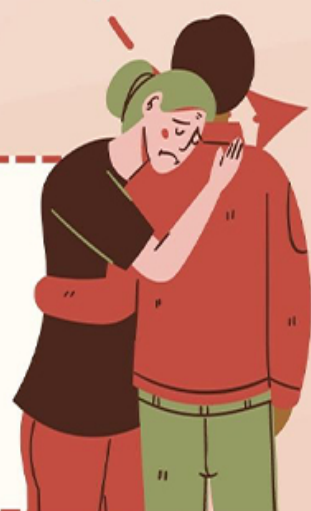

After you left, I may have stopped loving you like before, but why can't I stop thinking about you?

I thought I was over you, but all your memories still make me cry badly. I miss you.

This silence is killing me and giving me more reasons to miss you. Please, come back to me.

I miss your voice, your eyes, your smile, and how you cared. I miss you crazily, please come back.
