

Reasons A Toddler Gets Acne

Factors triggering the androgen secretion in toddlers that leads to acne may include:

Dairy consumption, especially butter cheese

Irritants like soaps, cleansers, and lotions, especially for toddlers with sensitive skin

Maternal exposure to drugs, like antidepressants, birth control pills, and steroids

Maternal dietary changes

Alterations in hormone levels in mother's breast milk

Excessive drooling

