

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Make Your Hubby's Birthday Memorable

Dedicate a song to him on the radio. Have it air when your husband leaves for work in his car, or turn it on when he wakes up.

Leave a trail of fragrance from his favorite perfume that he has to follow and reach the wardrobe where he'll find his birthday gift.

Join him in his hobby. Secretly learn the sport or activity he loves and surprise him as he's playing it by joining him or taking him out to do the activity together.

Make a collage of old pictures from your college days when you started dating through your marriage till now.

Wrap yourself up and wait in the bedroom for a spicy birthday gift. You become the gift that he has to unwrap.

Plan a dinner with his close friends for a fun and lighthearted evening as they recall their old memories and enjoy a sumptuous meal.
