

HOW TO KNOW IF YOUR LONG-DISTANCE RELATIONSHIP IS BUILT TO LAST?

You're emotionally intimate.

You both enjoy your alone time
and can go without talking for days.

The geographic distance is temporary,
and there's a scope
for being with each other.

You have met each other's family
and close friends.

Your communication is effortless.

You keep promises and trust each other.

You both had discussions about the future of the relationship.
