

Your Ex May Still Have Feelings For You If...

They remember your special dates and reach out to you on those days.

They randomly send you your favorite chocolates or dishes you like to eat.

They still like your posts and leave comments such as "beautiful" or "that outfit looks good on you."

They contact your family members and want to keep in touch with them.

They don't hesitate to touch or hug you when you bump into each other on the streets.

They send pictures of both of you from when you were together with a sweet quote or message.
