

Phrases That Could Be RED FLAGS IN A RELATIONSHIP

"You look really silly when you try to be funny."

"You're lucky I'm putting up with you because nobody else could."

"You're still eating? No wonder you're putting on so much weight."

"I never said that! You're just making things up."

"There's nothing more to discuss. What I said is right, and we'll go ahead with it."

"How can you be uncomfortable with me? We are in a relationship, and we should do it."

"Do you really think that would look good on you?"

"The problem is not me. It's you!"
