

Creative Ways In Which Children Can Use A Toy Camera

Let your child conduct a photo shoot for all their dolls and soft toys.

Create a family tree by asking the child to photograph each family member.

Visit the local park and encourage your child to click pictures of the various birds, animals, and plants.

Let your child weave a story using random pictures clicked by them.

Have the child photograph the same object in different lighting.

Have your child sow a sapling and click a picture of it each day to track its growth.
