

Different Textures Of

Children's Moisturizers

Cream-based formula

A thick consistency with moderate oil content that can suit dry to normal skin.

Oil-based formula

A semi-thick liquid consistency with the hydrating goodness of oils that can suit dehydrated skin.

Lotion-based formula

A light yet creamy formula with a high water content that may suit oily skin.

Gel-based formula

A light liquid consistency that is water-based, easy to apply, quick-drying, and may suit combination skin.

