

Toys And Activities That ENCOURAGE WALKING

Without A Baby Walker

Feet on feet

Place your baby's feet on your own and slowly walk forward.

Tag the toy

Encourage your baby to pursue a remote-controlled toy that you are slowly navigating around the room.

String toys

Help the baby pull around a string toy, preferably one that makes sounds with movement, as they walk.

Peek-a-boo

Playing this game behind different curtains of the house encourages your baby to walk over and find you.

Pass the ball

Throw a ball between two or more people and encourage your baby to walk over and catch it.
