

SCORPIO & CAPRICORN

AS A MARRIED COUPLE

They share a special intimate bond and a great sex life, too.

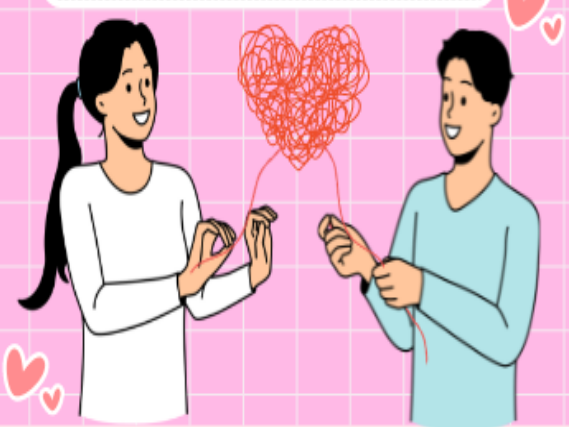

They complement each other's shortcomings well.

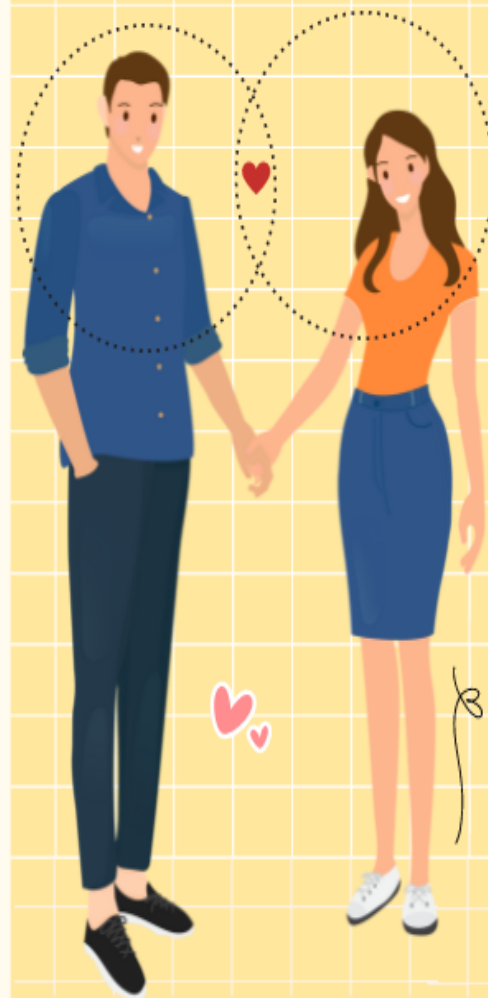

They are mature, dedicated, and faithful to each other as partners.

Trusting each other and having firm intentions to make their marriage work will help them sail through challenges.

Both need to respect each other's boundaries and make persistent efforts to ensure peace in the marriage.

They uphold effective communication and have a great understanding.
