

How Does A Baby's Smile Evolve?

Newborn reflexive smile

Starts to smile during initial months as a reflex action

Responsive smile

Develops during six to eight weeks after birth

Social smile

Develops around the age of two months

Indiscriminating smile

Develops at the age of six months

Selective smile

Develops at the age of nine months

Spontaneous smile

Occurs during sleep as a reflex with a closed mouth

Reference:

1. Why Do Babies Smile in Their Sleep; Sleep Foundation