

Different Stages Of Vaginal Bleeding After C-Section

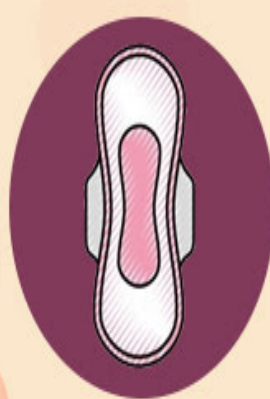

Lochia Rubra

Occurs during the first four days after childbirth

Characterized by heavy bleeding of bright red color with clots

Lochia Serosa

Lasts for around ten days

Characterized by lighter bleeding with color changing to pinkish or brownish

Lochia Alba

The final stage of bleeding

Characterized by a light discharge of yellowish or whitish color