

Different Types Of Napkin Holders

Weighted holders feature a pivoting weighted arm to firmly hold napkins in place, perfect for outdoor and windy settings.

Pull-design holders let you pull out one napkin at a time without disturbing the others.

Adjustable holders let you expand or contract the holder as per the quantity of the napkins.

Patterned holders feature ornate designs, adding to the aesthetics of a dining table.

Glass holders feature a vintage look compared to their metal counterparts, perfect for delicate settings.

Cast iron holders feature a robust and heavy-duty build, preventing tip-overs.

Contemporary-style holders feature a minimalistic framework, ideal for modern settings.
