

It does not hurt since it is placed outside the body.

It gives non-stop ECG over 24 hours.

A child can wear the monitor during activities.

A diary of symptoms is compared with the monitor's readings.

It can be attached to the child's belt.

Reference:

1. Holter Monitoring; UPMC Children's Hospital Of Pittsburgh

 ${\color{red} Source: \underline{https://www.momjunction.com/articles/heart-rate-in-children-normal-and-\underline{arrhythmia\_00419818/}}$