

Facts About Jumping In Pregnancy

Jumping in pregnancy can increase joint problems.

It may increase the pressure on the uterus.

There is a possibility of vaginal bleeding.

Ligaments and joints can be easily injured.

There is an increased risk of falls during jumping due to changes in the body's center of gravity during pregnancy.

Reference:

1. Jumping During Pregnancy – Is It Harmful?; Cloudnine