

Possible Symptoms Of A Hearing Problem In A Baby

Lack of startled reactions to loud noises

No response to sounds even after six months

Only responding to sight and not sound

Alertness to some sounds but not others

No single-word speech, even after one year

No use of two-word sentences, even after two years

Reference

1. How do I know if my baby has hearing loss?; March Of Dimes