

Bleeding or spotting accompanied by back pain or stomach cramps

A pale yellow or clear discharge indicating an amniotic fluid leak.

Diarrhea lasting for more than a day.

Extreme morning sickness.

Itching throughout the body without a rash indicating obstetric cholestasis.

Persistent heart palpitations, dizziness, or headache.

Source: https://www.momjunction.com/articles/17th-week-pregnancy-symptoms-baby-development-tips-body-changes_0015744/